

I think that it is wrong the NAB wants to take away something the me and a million other people pay for every month. I see no reason why XM cannot offer this service to all the people that pay for the service. Please take that into consideration when you look at this.